SOCIAL SCIENCES

Students explore how societies work and how they themselves can participate and take action as critical, informed and responsible citizens.

IDENTITY, CULTURE AND ORGANISATION

- Relationships that exist between people and the environment

CONTINUITY AND CHANGE

- How events, experiences and actions help us interpret the past and present

We provide opportunities within the Social Sciences programme for students to develop the knowledge and skills to better understand, participate in and contribute to the local, national and global communities in which they live.

PLACE AND ENVIRONMENT

- Relationships exist between people and the environment

ECONOMIC WORLD

- Their role in the economy and how economic decisions affect individuals and communities
